ABOUT US

From the Sassuolo district to the international market

Gambini Group was founded in the heart of the Sassuolo ceramic district as a company specializing in the production and marketing of porcelain stoneware surfaces.

Over the years, the group has consolidated its presence in the Italian and international markets, evolving from a commercial company to a contemporary industrial group.

"Reliability, speed of service and continuous aesthetic evolution."

BRAND EVOLUTION

In recent years, Gambini Group has embarked on an important path of evolution of its identity.

The goal: to build a more contemporary, coherent and recognizable language.

The Change

01

New aesthetic sensibility and artistic direction

02

Valorization of matter and surfaces

03

Emotional and design communication

04

Strengthening of digital and social presence

05

Contemporary and international brand vision

A NEW SURFACE IDEA

Ceramics as a language architectural

Gambini Group interprets ceramics not only as a technical material, but as an architectural surface capable of defining spaces, emotions, and identities.
